		Condition	ORDER	,*	·	Jack C. Silver, Clerk U. S. DISTRICT COUF

This case is before the Court on its own motion for correction of the defendant's sentence pursuant to Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. On November 4, 1976, the defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, in Count I of the above-cited case. In addition to the term of imprisonment imposed in Count I, a four-year special parole term was imposed upon the defendant. On June 16, 1980, the United States Supreme Court held that a special parole term may not be imposed for a narcotics conspiracy violation under Section 846. Bifulco v. United States, No. 79-5010 (June 16, 1980).

For the foregoing reason, it is therefore ordered that the special parole term heretofore imposed upon the defendant in Count I of the Indictment is hereby vacated.

It is so Ordered this ______ day of November _____, 1981 ____.

ORDER OF REVOCATION

On April 18, 1978, came the attorney for the Government, and the defendant appeared in person and with counsel, A. A. Berringer.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, upon his plea of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U. S. C., Section 495, as charged in the Information.

IT WAS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant was placed on probation for a period of Five (5) Years from April 18, 1978.

Thereafter, and on June 23, 1931, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, warrant for arrest of probationer was issued.

Thereafter, and on November 4, 1981, pursuant to said warrant, the probationer, Nathan Grier, III, appeared before the Court with his attorney and counsel, Kenneth L. Stainer. The Government was represented by Kenneth P. Snoke. Thereafter, the Court directed that the probation officer, Bob Boston, recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and there having been made a disclosure of the evidence against him, and being provided an opportunity to appear and present evidence in his own behalf, together with the opportunity to question witnesses against him, and after statements confirming probation violation by probationer and his counsel, and said probationer having waived his right to an evidentiary hearing, the Court finds that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary and that the defendant had violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked.

Now, on this 4th day of November, 1981,

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on April 18, 1978, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, NATHAN GRIER, III, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of Two (2) Years.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Order to the United States Marshal or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 4th day of November, 1981.
